

Following are a list of venues that use a hearing loop. If you don't know how to access the tcoil in your hearing aid, ask your audiologist for instructions. This is a working list. There may be changes to the systems. More likely, there will be additions that we do not know about. Please inform your audiologist if you know of a loop system that we do not have listed here. We want to include as many venues as possible, so if your classroom, religious center or theater adds a loop system, please share that information with us. Thanks!

Massachusetts:

Loews/ AMC Theaters:

Showcase Theaters:

Multiple locations. Both Lowe's and Showcase theaters often have looped showings. This will vary by location and even by screen in a particular location. Please ask at the box office for details about a particular theater and screening room. It is most likely this system will use a neckloop that can be picked up at the box office.
